The big day finally arrived. It was Christmas Eve and all of the North Pole was very excited. Every Christmas elf worked hard throughout the year to make sure all the children get their presents. Sorting all the letters that arrived to Santa's address and making toys was a tough job. Decorations and ornaments were being placed on every house and Santa's workshop was officially closed for the year. Most of the Christmas elves were given some free time to spend with their families, while few of them still had some work to do. It was very important to prepare Santa's sleigh and tie up all the Christmas bags together. Reindeers were given lots of food and water and were being harnessed to the sleigh. Snow was falling and even though it was cold, the whole event felt very warm and cozy. It was time for Santa to pick his two little helpers. Two of the Christmas elves will be honored to join Santa on his journey around the world and help him deliver all the Christmas presents. Are your children refusing to go to bed. A few years ago I made a discovery that amazed me. I discovered that God produced and directed a Christmas pageant that tells the amazing story of the birth of Jesus. There are several notable differences between God's Christmas pageant and any other Christmas pageant that you or I have ever seen or known.

God didn't use actors or actresses to tell the story; He used stars and planets and constellations! Nor did God set aside a few weeks before Christmas to begin preparations for His pageant; He set his pageant in motion thousands of years before the events actually took place!
