In this thrilling series debut set in the Italian Alps, an instinct-driven detective won't let her aging body and mind prevent her from tracking a brutal killer. Superintendent Teresa Battaglia has fought for nearly four decades to earn rank and respect on a testosterone-heavy Italian police force. When she's called to investigate a gruesome murder near a mountainside town, she's paired with a young male inspector she's not sure she trusts. But she has no choice—in this remote town full of secrets, eerie folktales and primal instincts, the killer seems drawn to a group of local children, who may be in grave danger. As Teresa inches closer to the truth, she must confront the possibility that her faculties, no longer what they once were, may fail her before the chase is over.

Un libro sobre el difícil proceso del crecemento y la conquista del lugar propio En nuestra familia no ocupamos el lugar que queremos, sino el que nos dejan o el que somos capaces de conquistar. Luego, cuando salimos al mundo, nos topamos con situaciones sospechosamente similares a las vividas con nuestros padres y hermanos. Y es que los roles nos persiguen. En La edad ganada, narración híbrida donde asistimos a la evolución de un personaje femenino desde los dos hasta los treinta años, nos encontramos con todas las modalidades de una relación tóxica. Madre, colegio de monjas, amistades ambiguas, anoréxicas, parejas que se torturan, abusos sexuales y acosos laborales que también son sexuales (¿puede ser de otro modo cuando el acosador es un hombre, la víctima una mujer y siendo la violación la base del patriarcado, como bien sostiene Virginie Despentes?). La protagonista quiere entender cuáles son los hilos que mueven su mundo, pero para ello necesita primero escapar. Mientras es una niña, para huir le basta con emparejarse con un perro o mutar en un hongo, pero al crecer eso ya no es suficiente. Ha de poner tierra de por medio, y se marcha a Nueva York. También necesita, y esto es lo más importante, a otras personas con las que construir un entorno habitable. Sartre afirmaba que el infierno son los demás, y en La edad ganada la sentencia del filósofo parece confirmarse. Ahora bien, estas historias no se quedan solo en señalar al entorno como fuente de todos nuestros males, sino que desarrollan otra cuestión más interesante y justa: ¿qué parte de los demás se confunde con nosotros? ¿Se puede decir «el infierno son los demás» obviando los demonios que llevamos dentro? O, dicho de otro modo: ¿qué sumisiones ha aceptado una joven española de clase media? Mar Gómez Glez traza, a través de las peripecias que aquí se cuentan, un mosaico de nuestra historia más reciente. Cada año Caballo de Troya invita a un editor a que coja las riendas del sello dejándole su impronta personal. Con La edad ganada de Mar Gómez Glez, Elvira Navarro estrena su año de regencia en lo que será «El caballo de Elvira».

A vida de Alexandre atópase nunha canella de difícil saída. Carolina, a súa moza, morreu nun accidente de moto. Dende entón, para ela xa nada ten sentido. Nestas circunstancias coñece a Nuria, unha rapaza que pertence a unha asociación de amigos de Exipto. O contacto con esta xente abre a Alexandre as portas a un mundo novo, mais tamén fai que se adentre nunha rede esotérica onde a súa propia vida pode estar en perigo. Do mesmo xeito que O inferno de Marta, esta novela de Pasqual Alapont complementas e cun interesante texto divulgativo. O xornalista Pepe Rodríguez, especialista no mundo das seitas, amósanos no epílogo (“Seitas: Un camiño fácil a ningunha parte”) os mecanismos internos que se agachan detrás dunha seita destrutiva. Unha obra que combina con acerto unha novela conmovedora e un estudo útil sobre este problema que pode afectar a algúns mozos e mozas.

más difícil a la que se han enfrentado jamás: un caso que hunde sus raíces en los episodios más oscuros y estremecedor es de la historia de este rincón milenario del norte de Italia: un infierno que aún sigue latiendo. Reseñas: «Italia tiene por fin a su reina del thriller.» Sandrone Dazieri «Un thriller que penetra los pliegues del alma humana. Una autora que habrá que seguir con atención.» Marta Cervino, Marie Claire «Con una intriga compleja, la novela se desliza como un trineo por un eslabón de nieve a toda virolla. Y no descarrila. [...] Tuti consigue una obra de intriga de morbosa belleza poética: el encanto del mal.» Lluís Fernández, La Razón «Desde las primeras líneas, el paisaje y las condiciones atmosféricas se constituye en un personaje central de la trama: el frío, la niebla, los bosques... Muy lejos de la tradicional imagen colorista y mediterránea que la novela negra italiana exporta al mundo.» Álvaro Soto, La Verdad «Ilaria Tuti sorprende por un estilo fresco, inusual en un género sobreexplotado. The book provides a comprehensive review and synthesis of the available public health and social science data to characterize the nature,	scope, and complexities of these epidemics. A community empowerment-based approach to HIV prevention, treatment, and care is outlined and demonstrated to be cost-effective across multiple settings, with a significant projected impact on HIV incidence among sex workers and transmission dynamics overall. to assist governments, public health implementing agencies, donors, and sex worker communities to better understand and respond to the epidemics among a population facing heightened social and structural vulnerabilities to HIV. The book combines a systematic review of the global epidemiology of HIV among sex workers and in-depth case studies of the epidemiology, policy and programmatic responses and surrounding social contexts for HIV prevention, care and treatment in eight countries. The authors employ mathematical modeling and cost-effectiveness analysis to assess the potential country-level impact of a community empowerment-based approach to HIV prevention, treatment, and care among sex workers when taken to scale in four countries representing diverse sociopolitical contexts and HIV epidemics: Brazil, Kenya, Thailand, and Ukraine. In each setting, greater investment in prevention, treatment, and care for sex workers is shown to significantly reduce HIV. Together these findings underline the urgency of further global investment in comprehensive, human rights-based responses to HIV among sex workers.

 Vana Lopes foi uma das vítimas do médico estuprador Roger Abdelmassih. Sua busca por justiça começou em 1993 e teve diversos percalços e incidentes estranhos, como um boletim de ocorrência sumido da delegacia. A luta para localizar Abdelmassih, após ele ganhar um habeas corpus do STF e fugir do país, é um dos maiores exemplos de determinação e coragem que o Brasil já viu. Enquanto a polícia não conseguia pistas, Vana soube utilizar com maestria e criatividade as redes sociais e a mídia, para se transformar num catalizador de informantes e juntar documentos - entre movimentações financeiras e viagens - que conduziram a polícia à captura do criminoso. The Hero with a Thousand Faces Vetor Editora Scholars in folklore and anthropology are more directly involved in various aspects of medicine—such as medical education, clinical pastoral care, and negotiation of transcultural issues—than ever before. Old models of investigation that artificially isolated "folk medicine," "complementary and alternative medicine," and "biomedicine" as mutually exclusive have proven too limited in exploring the real-life complexities of health belief systems as they observably exist and are applied by contemporary Americans. Recent research strongly suggests that individuals construct their health belief systems from diverse sources of authority, including community and ethnic tradition, education, spiritual beliefs, personal experience, the influence of popular media, and perception of the goals and means of formal medicine. Healing Logics explores the diversity of these belief systems and how they interact—in competing, conflicting, and sometimes remarkably congruent ways. This book contains essays by leading scholars in the field and a comprehensive bibliography of folklore and medicine.

We lived on a bunk built for four but in times of overcrowding, it slept seven and at times even eight. There was so little space on the berth that when one of us wanted to ease his hip, we all had to turn in a tangle of legs and chests and hollow bellies as if we were one many-limbed creature, a

Hindu god or a centipede. We grew intimate not only in body but also in mind because we knew that though we were not born of one womb, we would certainly die together.  Cando aceptou saír con aquel mozo, Marta non sabía que poñía un pé no inferno, e que a partir de entón sería tan doloroso penetrar como tratar de escapar de alí.

Esta novela de Pasqual Alapont, escrita ao xeito dun thriller, con psicópata incluído, pon os pelos de pé. Esta é a historia de Marta, unha moza que se enamorou da persoa equivocada; pero tamén é a historia dunha amizade a proba de bombas que cativa pola súa tenrura. O libro complétase con A máscara do amor, un texto no que o psicólogo e criminalista Vicente	Garrido analiza os comportament os de risco que calquera persoa moza debería ter en conta para evitar caer no inferno do maltrato físico ou psicolóxico. Afghanistan and Iraq, sparked an intense debate about "human rights." According to contributors to this provocative book, the discussion of human rights to date has been far too narrow. They argue that any conversation about human rights in the United States must include equal rights for all residents. Essays examine the historical and intellectual context for the modern debate about human rights, the racial implications of the war on terrorism, the intersection of racial oppression, and the national security state. Others look at the Pinkerton detective agency as a forerunner of the Federal Bureau of Investigation, the role of Africa in post-World War II American attempts at empire-building, and the role of immigration as a human rights issue.

O Anuario 2004 comeza cunha achega á obra de Lupe Gómez. Desde un punto de vista crítico abórdanse a obras desta poetisa nova ao cumprirse dez anos da súa primeira publicación. Elementos feministas, surrealistas, libertarios, existencialista s e autobiográficos levados a análise crítica da man de Ana Bela Simões e

Burghard Baltrusch. Dentro da sección Estudos cabe destacar o traballo de María Liñeira a cerca de A sección de Álvaro Cunqueiro no semanario catalán "Destino". Na mesma sección Olga Novo acércase a Vermella con lobos de Carmen Blanco, unha reescritura dos contos de fadas desde o feminismo literario. Na sección de Panóramicas, Manuel Forcadela fai un estudo	sobre o ensaio no ano 2004. Álvaro Álvarez e Isabel Soto reflexionan sobre o panorama literario infantil e xuvenil do pasado 2004, un ano prolífico e digno. Dolores Vilavedra leva a cabo unha xeira de profundización na narrativa deste mesmo ano, o mesmo que lolanda Ogando en poesía. Nas reseñas de libros atopamos críticas arredor de obras como Territorio da desaparición	de Miguel Anxo Fernán Vello, As ciudades mergulladas de Xosé Miranda, Ser uo non de Borrazás, Veu visitarme o mar de Rosa Aneiros ou Entre fronteiras de Xavier Alcalá. Bow-Wow- Meow Editorial Galaxia Clara Soutelo is a sixteen- year-old girl who spends her summers in the town of Vilarelle in Galicia. War and that occupies the manor house in Vilarelle. All the local families look up to them, and Clara has taken this attitude for granted. That is until the summer of 1995, when a skeleton is discovered in the manor house during restoration work. It has been walled up for many years, perhaps since the time of the Civil War, and the skull has a bullet hole. Clara also discovers a ring bearing the initial "R."

What is the identity of the victim, and who wielded the murder weapon? The search for the discovery of the truth will lead Clara into her family's inglorious past through the witness of the town's inhabitants, and will also sow the seeds of romance between her and a young mechanic by the name of Miguel, descendant of the bookbinder Ishmael, with whom she shares the secret pleasure of
